Child Burned to Death Near Westerose

A sad burning fatality took place a few days ago at Westerose, which resulted in the death of a 16-month-old child named Sigrid Alice Young. The little girl is the only daughter of a homesteader, and at the time she met her death was left in the house alone. About nine o'clock on the morning of the 29th of November Mrs. Young went to her mother's place, and was away about half an hour. She asked the father, who was building a new house about 150 yards from their shack, to keep an eye on the sleeping child, but as the mother was not away long he did not go into the shack. When Mrs. Young returned, she found the shack full of smoke, and the child lying dead between the bed and the heating stove. The little girl's clothes were all burned off with the exception of the stockings, and the body was terribly charred.

Just how the child got there is not known, but the theory advanced by the neighbors is that a spark from the spruce wood burning in the stove must have ignited the child's heavy flannel clothing. No impact was deemed necessary.

Nominations for Rural Municipality of Montgomery

The nominations for the newly formed Rural Municipality of Montgomery took place at the council chamber, Wetaskiwin, on Monday afternoon last. Considerable interest was taken in the proceedings, as a representative gathering assembled, and several names would have been placed in nomination had the parties given their consent. The councillors in the division excepting No. 5 were elected by acclamation. The representatives are:

Div. 1.—J. G. Wilcher, nominated

by P. R. Ringwall and C. J. Billsten; Div. 2.—Chas. A. Johnson, nominated by Oscar Greenwall, J. N. Franklin and Washington Hawkes;

Div. 3.—Amos Doups nominated by Gomer Thorsen, C. E. Olson, Zalm Wick, H. P. Rix, and Wm. Thirk; Div. 4.—A. L. Craig, nominated by Alex Roy and J. A. Gardner;

Div. 5.—E. R. Rasmussen, nominated by S. Carlson, J. A. Wingblad and Eric Peterson.

In Division 5, the following were placed in nomination:

Thos. B. Jevne, nominated by Bert Haggard and John Kvelo.

Sam Groves, nominated by Frank Lucas, R. W. Hawkins, Rocco Stanley, Alex Murray and John Bowie.

The election in this division will be held in the Larch Tree school house on Monday next, December 13, between the hours of nine a.m. and five p.m. Carl Dugger is the deputy returning officer.

Damage Case Dismissed

The action of John R. Wilows against Dr. T. B. Stevenson, which occupied all yesterday in the Supreme civil court, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Hyndman. Frank Ford, K.C., and A. L. Marks acted for the plaintiff, and O. M. Biggar, K.C., for the defendant.

The plaintiff, who is a farm manager near Wetaskiwin, sued for $276 damages for alleged improper surgical treatment by the defendant, who is a surgeon practicing in Wetaskiwin.

The evidence of the plaintiff and the doctors who gave evidence failed to prove that there had been negligence by the defendant, but rather that there had been proper care in treating the defendant.

The Hon. Justice Hyndman in dismissing the case without any witnesses on behalf of the defence being called, remarked that there was no case whatever against the defendant. Dr. Stevenson is a highly respected and successful physician in Wetaskiwin, and has held a large number of important offices in Wetaskiwin—Bulletin.

Recruits to be Quartered Here

Recruiting for the 151st Battalion will commence in the course of a few days and all who enlist at Wetaskiwin will be quartered in the city for the winter months.

J. M. Peterkin, who has been given the rank of lieutenant, and who will be the recruiting officer, informs us that a number of young men have signified their intention of enlisting as soon as the necessary papers arrive.

Patriotic

The meeting in the interests of the Patriotic Fund, which was to have been held in the Finlander's Hall this week, has been inadvertently postponed until Tuesday evening next, December 14.

It is requested that all committee working in the rural communities complete their work of canvassing as quickly as possible so that all funds may be handed in to either Mr. Montgomery or Mr. Nesbitt before the end of the year.

Hymen's Altar

HIX-TOST

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellis Lorne street, was the scene of a very pleasing event on Wednesday, the 8th inst, when Mr. Clayton Howard Rix and Miss Clara Louise Tost were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. A. Pocock, B.A., and was witnessed by the relatives of the bride and groom. The young couple left on the afternoon train to spend a short time before returning to their comfortable home at Bear's Hill, where they will reside. The good wishes of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances is extended to them.

MISCHKOWSKY-KIRSTEIN

The Ev. Lutheran Zion Church was the scene of a pretty wedding last Sunday, when Fr. Mischkowsky and Miss Eva Kirstein were united in matrimony. The bride was attended by the Misses Martha Weis, a d. Lydia Schmidt, while Gustav Kirstein and Fr. Weis acted as groomsmen. After an address on Gen. 2:18 Rev. Schmidt, the pastor of the couple, performed the ceremony. A goodly number of friends had put in their appearance to witness the marriage and to express their best wishes to the happy pair. The afternoon and evening were spent in a pleasant and enjoyable manner at the home of the bride by the host of friends. Our heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mischkowsky.

BENTLEY-MCKINLEY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at McLaughlin Methodist church, Edmonton, on Wednesday evening, December 8th, when Mr. Arthur G. W. Bentley, recently of Wetaskiwin, was united in marriage to Miss Grace de Wolf, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Huestis McKinley, of Wetlock, Alberta.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Johnston, B.A., M.A., of Wesley Methodist church, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Armstrong, the pastor of the church.

Both bride and groom were unattended, and the guests included only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was a tastefully dressed in a beautiful velvet costume, with white satin picture hat and pale pink plumes. Her blouse was of palest pink crepe de chine with handsome lace garniture. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and maid hair fern.

The wedding music was played by a cousin of the bride, Miss Louise de Wolf Moore, and the groom's present to the organist was a Pearl and Amethyst pendant.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moore, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The house was fragrant with pink and white carnations, and the tea table was decorated with the same flowers and streamers of satin ribbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentley leave shortly for Wetlock, where Mr. Bentley will open business as a general merchant.

"Don't forget the 1 cent sale at the Rexall Drug Store on December 17th and 18th."

BEEF RAISING IN CANADA

There has been issued at Ottawa a new edition of the Bulletin No. 13, of the live stock branch, "Beef Raising in Canada." It is available on application to the publisher, as branch of the department of agriculture. Upwards of one hundred pages and nearly as many half-tone illustrations, conveying valuable information are given. Among the contributors are many of the best informed and most experienced beef raisers in Canada.

A section is devoted to descriptive accounts of the various breeds of beef cattle raised in this country, while practical information on breeding, rearing, housing, and marketing is also contained.

In dealing with the finished steer it is rightly remarked that to succeed the requirements of the purchaser must be complied with. The standard of the best market has changed greatly in recent years. The bullock that commands the highest price is a compact well finished animal that weighs not more than 1,000 pounds, on foot and if he weighs only 1,200 pounds, he will fetch the top price.

provided he has the form, quality and finish. Then the thousand pound "baby beef" is looked for by the best buyers on this side of the Atlantic, but such cattle are not shipped abroad. The change is greatly to the advantage of the producer, as other things being equal, the younger the animal goes to market, the less is the cost of food and the greater the profit to the producer. To secure delicate meat and tenderness a certain proportion of fat is necessary and this should be incorporated with the rich or lean meat rather than appear only as a covering to the muscles. The great secret in producing a carcass of beef is to treat the animal in such a way that the fat grows with it during the entire period of its lifetime. It is unfortunately the too common practice of Canadian beef raisers to produce all the fat that an animal carries in the course of a very few months. Much of the fat put on in this way is deposited on the outside of the carcass, it is largely wasted, as it is useful for little else than tallow. The carcass that dresses out showing specks and streaks of fat throughout the lean tissue commands the highest prices. The only way to be sure of prime quality is to maintain the animal in good condition by a system of liberal feeding, from birth to maturity. Then the finishing period is comparatively short, and the carcass produces the highly desirable marbled beef.

GRAND TRUNK SHOWS CANADIAN WEST IN VERY FINE MANNER

The Grand Trunk Railway System has been awarded the gold medal (highest award) and diploma, for its exhibit at the Panama Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco.

The announcement has reached the railway officials from H. B. Anderson, chief of the transportation department of the exposition, that it was the result of the decision of the superior court.

The Grand Trunk System has done notable work at the big San Francisco fair in bringing to the notice of tens of thousands of visitors the scenic, agricultural and industrial resources of Canada. Its exhibit was housed in a special pavilion erected by the company, with a moving picture hall attached, where the beauties of the Dominion were thrown upon the screen throughout each day, and the riches of the new territory opened by the Grand Trunk Pacific illustrated.

HONESTLY BELIEVED HE WAS GOING INTO CONSUMPTION.

DR. WOOD'S Norway Pine Syrup CURED HIM.

Mr. Frank E. Anthony, 61 Glen Street, Winnipeg, Man., writes: "I have taken several bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became suddenly subject to violent coughing fits at night, and shortly after rising in the morning for about an hour, and found I was gradually losing weight. All my friends cheerfully informed me that I looked as though I were going into consumption, and I honestly believed it. However, after having taken several bottles of Dr. Wood's I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared, along with all the nasty symptoms, and I have since regained the lost weight. I have since recommended Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup as a sure cure for all those troubled in a like manner."

When you ask for "Dr. Wood's," see that you get what you ask for. It is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; the price, 25c and 50c.

WHEN SUSAN JANE IS MAYOR

(With apologies to Mrs. McClung)
When Susan Jane is elected
To the Mayoralty chair,
There'll be several wrongs corrected,
That are now apparent there.
The sidewalks will be painted,
The streets swept twice a day,
The stores will be as fragrant
As a field of new mown hay.

So with parties and receptions,
And an occasional ball,
There will be a transformation
Around the city hall.
And the city of Wetaskiwin
Will be represented then,
By lovely Alderlades,
And not by Aldermen.

When Susan Jane is elected
None but ladies will of course,
Be appointed then as members
Of the city Police Force,
And in their blouses uniforms,
They'll look so very sweet,
Sure, the men to be arrested,
Will consider it a treat.

The stores will be compelled
To hold a Bargain Sale each day,
And for chewing gum and candy
We will not be asked to pay.
The theatres will all be free,
Sweet music read the air.
When Susan Jane is elected
To the Mayoralty chair:
—James Madden.

It is understood that the railways
have sent out notices to the whole

they will not be responsible for the gone into force as yet, but it has stirred up quite a lot of opposition to it by those most interested.

the latest returns show the voters to be about equally divided on the question.

A man was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in Toronto the other day for attempting to prevent enlistment for active service. It is a serious offence. Before long it may also be a serious offence to put anything in the way of people contributing to the Patriotic Fund.

According to a report from Wainwright ten of the buffalo in the park are to be slaughtered. Tenders are to be received for the carcasses at a price per pound. While the heads and hides will be shipped to the purchase for show purposes, they will remain the property of the department of the interior, and must be returned in good order for mounting purposes.

It is probably correct that recruiting in Alberta is about exhausted—so long as prospective recruits are given to understand that no one knows how long an enlisted man has to "solder" before being allowed to go to the front. The allurements of harmless life are neither numerous nor over-powering, and if it is not going to affect the strength of the allied forces at the fighting line for an indefinite time whether he enlists or not, the young man is not to be blamed for preferring the freedom of civilian life. When the country really wants him to get on the job it can have him. It can't have him in any great numbers unless and until

Alberta has one mile of railroad for every 125 persons in the province of old Vancouver. The department of justice has received a petition from British Columbia containing 30,000
names asking for the commutation of the death sentence passed upon Mrs. Elizabeth Goward for the murder of the man with whom she was living at Port James, northern British Columbia. The date of execution is fixed for December 23. Large petitions also have been received on behalf of Mrs. Hawkes, of Lewistown, Alberta, sentenced to death on December 29, for the murder of Mrs. Rosella Stokey. The two cases will be reviewed by the minister of justice, and it would not be surprising if
in both cases the death sentence
is commuted to life imprisonment.

News From the Front

FARM LAND AREA
OF WESTERN CANADA

France, Nov. 4, 1915.

Dear Friend:

I just returned from the trenches yesterday and found your letter waiting me in my billet. I was very pleased to know that you are all well and still enjoying life in Sunny Alberta. I am sure that Alberta will look good to me after spending a vacation here. This country does not appeal to me at all the rain and mud is something here. One has to trudge along the roads in mud nearly six inches deep, but nevertheless we are not downhearted yet. I do not know what the winter will bring forth, but I suppose we can stand it as well as anyone else.

You were speaking of the Hilow 'een party. Well, I assure you I would be very pleased to see them, but I happened to be spending that night in a trench in Flanders. Standing in a trench, wet and cold, is slightly different from sitting beside a nice warm fireplace. I hope this war will be over by the time another Hilow 'een comes around and that I will be able to enjoy myself as of old.

I must thank you very much for the offer of box, etc., but we are being well supplied here with all kinds of clothing. I have written home telling them not to send me anything of that nature as we can get all we want here. The articles made for the Red Cross work is principally for wounded men in the hospitals. None of it is ever sent to the men in the field, as far as I have been able to find out. You see a surplus of wearing apparel would just be wasted for we have no horse now and have to carry our packs on our back and if there is anything that can be done without it is just thrown away.

The government has established a system of divisional hats here and about once a week we get a change to have a bathing jacket which can have a clean outfit to put on. In this way we have very little need for any surplus underwear, etc., etc. A few days ago I was going along some trenches and on noticing a grave with a cross erected I strolled over to it to see who the unfortunate man was and to see what I could read. "Here lies a 9 inch German shell. He who touches it will be blown to bits." The graveyards all through this country are quite a sight and I am sure as soon as the war is over and peace declared there will be a large number of people here trying to find the resting place of those near and dear to them.

I am fairly comfortably situated at the moment, as far as I have been able to find out. It is a brick building and we have been trying to make life as pleasant as possible under the existing conditions. We made an open fireplace with biscuit boxes and have the chimney running out through the window. We do our own cooking and can have all the delicacies of the season providing we can get them. There is always quite a number for the house eggs. We sleep on the floor with our own blanket and overcoat over us, dodging the handshakes through the roof.

There is a lot more I could tell you but the censors will possibly object so under conditions like that it is hard to write a very interesting letter. We are not allowed to have any cameras in our possession so I often wish I could get pictures of some of the sights we see here. It is a shame that the likes of this should be going on at this stage of civilization.

Kindly remember me to the rest of the folks there. I must close now as it is getting dark and my supply of news is nearly exhausted. I will write you again for your offer, I am, Yours sincerely,
W. F. Murphy.

JOHN BULL'S WAY

Nervousness, among those who sympathize with the Allies, over a new cabinet, shindy in England, would probably be quite without warrant. That's the way John Bull usually does it. In the life-or-death struggle with Napoleon he turned out a half dozen cabinets. He had no sooner got the Crimean War neatly up on his astonished hands than he indulged in a parliamentary squabble and fired the ministry.

When foreign relations are as bad as they can be, and breaktrains are coming through the windows, John Bull's first idea is to grab the government firmly by the whiskers, break a chair over its head and kick it under the table after which he feels it to attend to the little matter over.

We have heard a good deal lately about British decadence and cynicism, but the past few years have shown that England is all jangle and rattle, with everybody shaking, and that there is a howl here and a shriek there as the store lid catches pace in the eye-why, then everything is most promising and the outlook could not be better.

As judging by the past, if England fought as silently as France does we should suspect it was out of wind and could not last long—Saturday Evening Post.

Three million seven hundred thousand is the total number of casualties in the German armies during the war up to and including Nov. 22 according to official reports.

The total estimate of possible farm lands in the three prairie provinces still available is placed at 270,892,000 acres, of which there are 145,217,000 acres in Alberta, 83,459,000 acres in Saskatchewan, and 42,216,000 acres in Manitoba. At the time of the last official Dominion census the land occupied as farm land included 12,228,323 acres in Manitoba, 25,642,000 acres in Saskatchewan, and 17,761,890 acres in Alberta. At the time of taking the census the percentage of arable land under cultivation or occupied as farm land in the three provinces showed a total of over 55,000,000 acres, and it was then estimated that of the land still vacant, the arable area would be 50 per cent in Manitoba, 60 per cent in Saskatchewan, and 65 per cent in Alberta.

These figures show that of the vacant lands remaining in the prairie provinces an average of at least 58 per cent is good farm land. The land actually occupied as farm land, although totalling over 55,000,000 acres, is not more than twenty-five per cent of the arable land suitable for settlement. There is still a large enough in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to increase present agricultural population about 400 per cent without crowding. The scope is so unlimited that the prairie provinces could easily support an agricultural population of from 8,000,000 to ten millions, and still allow each agriculturist several hundred acres. While the 1915 acreage under cultivation was the highest in the history of the prairie provinces, it was small in comparison with the land areas still available for cultivation. Winnipeg Free Press.

THE BEST INVESTMENT

This is almost as good as the loan issued by the British and French governments a while ago, which was sold to the underwriters at about six per cent and sold at a profit of five and a half per cent to the small investors. But the loan raised by Britain and France in the United States was one which had to be raised in a foreign country at the crucial time to meet buying obligations. For this reason, the better terms were allowed than would have been allowed had the British and French governments desired to raise their money in their own countries. For this reason Canadian investors are fortunate in getting practically as a good return from the Canadian government as British and French were forced to pay when exchange was a running heavily against them. The loan is the most advantageous that has been issued in many a long year in any country. The security is perfect, unless we can imagine such a contingency as Germany after becoming supreme in Europe, coming over and treating us as she has treated Belgium. Therefore, the money to the loan will not only be getting the best security on the market today but will be helping to supply the silver bullets with which Lord George at the beginning of the war said the last battles would be fought.—Witness.

16,000 ENLISTED IN

ALBERTA OUTSIDE
OF RESERVISTS

Edmonton, Dec. 3.—Colonel Cruikshank, Calgary district officer commanding the Alberta district, was in Edmonton recently inspecting the companies and the Fifty-first, Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth battalions now in winter quarters in the city. He expressed himself as well pleased with the condition of the men.

Col. Cruikshank also said that he thought that eighteen thousand men had been enlisted up to the present time exclusive of reservists of the different allies.

The last official figures were compiled up to the end of September when they stood at slightly over sixteen thousand.

He was reminded that the Dominion government a short time ago issued a tabular statement giving 14,000 as Alberta's proportion. "That was manifestly wrong," he stated, "and I have since corrected it."

There are at the present time about 425 barristers practicing in the province of Alberta, and of these about 225 are in the four cities of Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat, while the other two hundred are divided among the towns and villages of the province. There are over 100 barristers in each of the cities of Edmonton and Calgary.

away at the Alexandria Hospital, Edmonton, on Thursday, Dec. 2, at the age of 56 years. He has been suffering for some time with cancer. The remains were laid away in the Strathcona cemetery on Friday. His sons Ernest and Paul, went up to attend
the funeral.

A large crowd gathered at the rooms of the Athletic Association on Wednesday evening, and were well entertained by the members. After exhibitions of different kinds had been given on the bars, trapeze, etc., a lively basketball game was played between teams representing the town and the high school, in which the former were victorious, the score being 22-19.

The idea of the opera, "Florida," which is being given by the junior high school, at the Sunday school of Knox church at the Angus Theatre next Monday evening, was suggested by one of Grimsby's fairies called "Florida and Yontagel".

Although the title has been slightly changed, the names of the two principal characters as well as the essential points of the original story have been retained. The story of the opera is still the story of a little girl changed to a nightingale by the magic power of a witch and finally rescued by the discovery of a magic flower, called the rose and pearl.
Small changes have been made in the details of the story to make it more suitable for production on the stage.

Millet News

Millet, Dec. 8.—Mr. V. C. Storey,
Mr. H. Fitz, Mr. I. Wagar and Miss
Hope were among the Millet people in Wetaskiwin on Saturday.

Miss H. Aikman, of Wetaskiwin, spent the week-end at the home of her parents.

On Friday night representatives of the Millet branch of the Patriotic Fund journeyed to the Coal Lake school and organized a branch of the fund at that place with the following officers: Pres. Henry Johnston;
vice-pres. John Praderick; sec. E.
C. Stewart. Mr. O. Hankin occupied the chair and speeches were given by E. H. Keith, Rev. E. Mann, Nat-ionistic songs by Miss Taylor and a
Mr. Mann, and a reading by Mr.
Hankin. Coal Lake got off to a good start and will send a large sum of money to the fund.

Rev. Gold, of the Temperance and Moral Reform association conducted the services in the Methodist church here last Sunday and also gave a number of interesting lantern views
at the evening service.

Mrs. Steeves and daughter, Mrs.
Van Voothis and daughter, were returning to Wetaskiwin on Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening a branch of the Patriotic Fund was organized at Hillside by a delegation from the town, the speakers being Rev. O. E.
Mann, O. Hankin, and T. B. Smith.
Patriotic songs were sung by Miss Taylor and Mr. Mann and a reading by Mr. Hankin. The following officers were elected: Pres. L. Ayers, vice-pres. W. M. Weir; sec. Jas. Milner. With the above officers to look after the work in that neighborhood, there is no doubt but that Hillside will do its share and a little bit more.

Mr. R. P. Roop, the well-known Poland Cdn. hog breeder of this district, is attending the meeting of the League Agricultural Society today.

Ottawa, Dec. 8.—For the first nine months of the present calendar year there was a net decrease of 6,741 in the total number of homesteaded
entries taken out in Western Canada.

The province of Manitoba alone shows an increase in homesteadings, the total number for the nine months of the year being 3,000, as compared with 2,776 for the corresponding period of last year. In Saskatchewan entries this year totalled 4,695, as compared with 7,472 last year. In Alberta this year's entries totalled 5,990 as compared with 3,712 last year and in British Columbia a there were only 382 entries this year, as compared with 694 entries last year.

The newest of new officers strolled into the sergeant's mess to have a young and small, and had a comhave enlivened. The middle aged warriors were not at all pleased to have to "know" to this stripping, and one gruff-voiced sergeant observed audibly, "And a little child shall lead us." The young officer did not appear to notice the remark and left the room without delay

when the men had all settled down
for the night, playing cards, etc., he had entered and addressing the sergeant said: "You will assemble the men immediately for a twenty-mile route march. And a little child was a horseback and you last one of him will walk."

Municipalities in Alberta will not be able to collect licenses from pool and billiard halls, according to a decision handed down yesterday by the supreme court en banc in Calgary, in the appeal of the Lethbridge pool hall men against the decision of Magistrate Elton that they must pay the city license in addition to the license collected by the province.

The particular case in which the appeal was made was that of the city of Lethbridge. The city council had asked the province to collect the license from the pool hall men, under the pool hall act, passed two years ago. Magistrate Elton decided in the police court that the city could collect the license. The decision appealed the decision with the above result. The supreme court held that the provincial act took away from the municipalities the power to license pool halls. As this is a test case, the decision will apply to all municipalities. This will mean a considerable loss of revenue to the cities and towns. The provincial license is $10 for the first table and $5 each for every other table. The city license in Lethbridge was just double the provincial license. It is likely that the decision just rendered will be accepted by the city council. R. A. Smith, representative of the pool hall owners in the appeal—Lethbridge Herald.

THE BRITISH LION

Oh, the British lion is a noble seign,
And proud in his conscious might,
The terror of those he has made his foes

For he ever defends the right.
And yet so mild that a timid child
May approach him and nest not quail
May pat him on the crown and stroke
him down.

But beware how you tread on his tail,
Oh, beware, have a care, oh, beware
Oh, beware how you tread on his tail
Till much require to raise his ire

For he's fond of a quiet snore;
No idle vaunt or threat or taunt,
Will provoke him his strength to use
No bliss he thinks like forty winks,
Yet his vigilance never doth fall.

For he sleeps with only one eyelid
shut,
So beware how you tread on his tail
His foes at best are knaves and cowards
And it oft befalls his giant sides,
They pierce with their gun-like sting
But he merely yawns, for the thought never dawns.

Such pigmies to assail,
Till, grown more bold his sloth to behold,
They venture to tread on his tail.

Then up he bounds and his roar re-
sounds,
As he lashes his foaming sides,
His warlike breath hurls fire and death.

And scatters them far and wide,
And great and small down, down
they fall.
'Neath the storm of his iron hail,
And repeat to their cost when all is
lost.

That they trod on the Lion's tail,
And repeat to their cost when all is
lost,
That they trod on the Lion's tail.

HOW TO TRAP THE MUSKRAT

The muskrat—called by the Indian "matquash"—is the only one of the smaller fur-bearing animals that eats vegetable foods exclusively. For furs, parsnips, carrots, beets, turnips, apples, corn—in fact, any similar food are good. When using decoys, it is well to remember that sometimes the vegetable will give good results, and then, again, in the same territory, prove a failure. For instance, muskrats living near a corn field would not be attracted by this bait as readily as they would by an apple. Of all the animals the muskrat is the only one that seems to show no signs of extermination. There are hundreds and hundreds of thousands of pelts taken each season, yet there is no diminution. Most of the hides are taken in the fall of the year, when the animals are most active, although the fur is not at its best until late winter and spring, during the colder months, the animals do not go out much, and because of the ice, do not use their slides.

In the streams the musquash usually has its den in the banks; in the ponds and lakes it builds houses out of sticks and mud. However, I have seen burrows in the banks of ponds and houses in shallow rivers and streams. This, by the way, is an exception rather than the rule. The simplest method of taking the muskrat is by placing traps at their slides, where the animals enter the water. Sets should be made where it is about three inches deep. When this is done, the fur-traps are caught by the long and strong hind legs, and not by the short and weak front ones. Very rarely does a muskrat escape that has been caught by a hind leg, unless, of course, a large trap is used, which cuts or breaks the bone. On the other hand fur-traps taken by the front legs frequently get away.

In connection with this let me say that all sets in deep water wherever this is possible. Aquatic animals attempt to dive as soon as the jaws snap upon them and invariably make for water which is not shallow. In their efforts to escape, the animal will land the chain of the trap, but the stake. The weight of the trap is all that is necessary to insure the skin.

In the winter, set a board in a shallow place. Just beneath the surface place a trap. Hold it into place with nails. Use a bait to attract the animal. This set is easy and will give results when all others fail.

In the winter, when the water is not too cold, small bags of coarse salt will often keep slides open. Place salt at foot of them, and traps should be on the salt. I have frequently trapped at slides with this method after others had given up work.

In winter, large drains flowing into streams are good places for sets. Place several traps in the water. Use no decoy. On small sticks in shallow water, set on an incline, place pieces of parsnip. (Because of its odor, this is a very good lure.) Under the bait place traps in such a manner that nothing can disturb them without getting caught.

Stake a pumpkin or small head of cabbage in shallow water and surround it with traps. This will usually give good results, and many times several animals are taken in a single night with a set of this kind.

When the water is too deep for a set, often a place may be made for the trap with mud or ice. If too shallow dig an excavation.

Between small puddles, often there will be found shallow runs which are used by the animals in their escape. These should be placed, one at each entrance-way.

Often if one builds small mounds where the water is not deep, scooping out the centres so that water will rise in them, he will find no difficulty in taking the muskrat. Set in the excavations of the mounds. Jump or Leap traps, covering them lightly with grass or weeds. No decoys are necessary, for the animals swimming around will get on the mounds, and usually are caught.

In streams which have a swift current and are not too deep, often one can place brush, sticks, etc. in such a manner that the animals have to pass through openings in going up or down. Traps put in these gates.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train of Thought Inspired by a Letter About 'Fruit-a-Lives'

MR. D. MCLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Dyspepsia, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-Lives' makes you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-Lives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends." DAN MCLEAN.

"FRUIT-A-LIVES" is daily proving its precious value in relieving cases of Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble—General Weakness, and Skin Diseases. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-Lives Limited, Ottawa.

as they are sometimes called, will bring good results. Care must be taken, however, that dirt, etc., does not gather on the dam and wash it away or raise the water so high that the sets are useless.

In the winter, when the ice has formed, one can frequently make good catches of muskrats by chopping the holes in the houses and setting the traps. Some speak the animals out. Most of the skins sold by the Indians are taken in this way. I must say, however, that pelts which are filled with holes do not command such high prices as those which are not. When all lures fail, simply place a piece of white paper near a set. The muskrat is very inquisitive. I have taken many in this way, although I do not recommend it except as a last resort.

In some places the flesh of the muskrat can be sold. You should live near the market, however. Dealers demand that the carcasses be nicely cleaned and packed in ice. They should be delivered the same day they are caught otherwise they are liable to spoil. Prices vary but a dollar and a half a dozen is perhaps the average. The cafes and restaurants are the principal users.

In stretching, the muskrat, most trappers do not give this work enough attention. As a result, many skins are not properly cured. If the steel or wire forms are not used, cure thin boards which are easily split when the hides are dry. Never use heat, twigs, or smoke, for the skins are not given their proper shape, nor are they stretched as they should be. Fur dealers usually list pelts cured on twigs as "bow stretched." They are worth considerably less than those cured on the board or steel forms—Nor' West Farmer.

All the local elevators are full to the roof, and this condition is common throughout the entire west. There is no way of telling how soon the congestion will be relieved as it is next to impossible to obtain cars. Vegreville is the best point on the Canadian Northern for obtaining cars, even here the supply has dwindled down so that next to nothing can be done. It would require 40 cars to lift the present blockade at this point—Vegreville Observer.

His Face Was Covered With Pimples.

Pimples are not a serious trouble, but they are very unsightly. Pimples are caused wholly by bad blood, and to get rid of them it is necessary to purify the blood of all its impurities.

Burdock Blood Bitters has made many remarkable cures; the pimples have all disappeared, and a bright, clean, complexion left behind.

Mr. Lennox D. Cooke, Indian Tatt., N.S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last winter my face was covered with pimples, and I was getting better. I got two more, and when they were finished I was cured. I had been told it was a good blood purifier, and I recommend it to all." Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for the past forty years, and is manufactured only by The T. "WHY THE DELAY"

A "gentleman farmer" tells of a city lad who once worked for him. The lad was called one winter morning before dawn, and told to harness the mule to the barn. The lad was too lazy to light a lantern, and in the dark he didn't notice that one of the cows was in the stable with the mule. The farmer, impatient at the long delay, shouted from the house: "Billy! Billy! What are you doing?" "I can't get the collar over the mule's head," yelled back the boy. "His ears are frozen!"—Collier's Weekly.

A RESOLUTION

It is hereby known that the members of the Social Democratic Club of New Norway District, that were assembled at a meeting held in Highland Park, December 8, 1915, unanimously agreed and resolved to make known through the public press, their stand in regard to the present war in the following resolution:

"We, the members assembled at this meeting, have unanimously agreed that we will absolutely refuse to give any voluntary support, moral or financial, toward the continuance of this year for the following reasons:

1. Because we are absolutely opposed to the killing of innocent human beings, whether it is done individually or collectively, legally, or illegally, and warfare is nothing but legalized killing of human beings.

2. We refuse to give any voluntary support for the continuance of this war because the real instigators (or guilty parties) will not be adequately punished no matter which side comes out victorious, nor will militarism or nationalism be eradicated or the causes done away with by continuing the same.

3. Because we believe the chief guilt lies at the door of the ruling class, and those have directed the colonial policies, the great commercial and financial trusts and banking houses. Reactionary royalists who hate and fear the rising tide of democracy, ambitious empire-builders—expansionists, the military class, or party, secret diplomacy, jealous nationalists, certain influential historians, and the owners and editors of "jingo" newspapers—the "kept" subsidized press.

4. Because the millions of men enlisted or engaged in this war had personally not collectively, any quarrel with each other prior to the war; nor does race hatred cut any figure of a cause, (at least as far as the German and English people in general concern us).

5. Because enmity, jealousy, rivalry or race hatred has never been abolished or crushed by war, nor has it ever tended to bring about harmony or friendship between belligerent nations.

6. Because this war was never decided upon by the people, i.e. it was not decided by popular ballot whether Canada should participate in it or not. Such a grave question should like other important questions, be submitted to the people, to be voted on directly.

7. Because we believe it is time that the warring nations should declare a truce without delay, that is cease hostilities and begin to reason with each other, to find a just basis for agreement; to find out and abolish the underlying as well as the apparent causes for the war; to set up international relations according to such a plan and principles which would create an amicable and good will, adopting the grand principle of co-operation or altruism for the good of all humanity. Banishing all false patriotism and selfish nationalism, making room for an all inclusive world patriotism to take its place.

8. Because the longer the war is kept up, the more misery, waste, devastation, ruin, despair and anarchy will follow in its train. The best of the nation's physical manhood will be killed, maimed, or impaired, leaving as progenitors for the future a weak, undernourished and crippled manhood.

9. Because war is utterly inhuman, unchristian. It dehumanizes, brutalizes, demoralizes. This is the verdict of men who have been great warriors, and of statesmen, historians, and scientists who have studied back for immediate and remote results.

And the war is absolutely anti-Christian—contrary to the spirit and genius of Christ's life and teaching, ought to be clear to the most superficial student of his life, work and teaching.

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall obtain possession of the earth."
"Blessed are the peace makers, for it is they who will be recognized as sons of God."
"But thy sword shall be turned into a plowshare, for he that draws the sword shall perish by the sword."
"Avenge not yourselves, for vengeance is mine, saith the Lord."
Paul, the great apostle of Christianity, who advises to Christians concerning their duty of submission to the "Powers that be," is used as a bulwark against individual rights, declares that a Christian's Right of Conflict is not against flesh and blood, but with despotism, empire the forces that control the present evil world.—Eph. 6:12.

But he makes it plain that a Christian is not to use carnal weapons, but spiritual or moral ones, such as truth, righteousness, the sword of the spirit, the word of God in short, to overcome evil with good.—2 Cor. 10:4. Rom. 12:21.

St. John in Rev. 12, pictures among others one of the great latter day empire formations, under the symbol of "A Beast" to whom was given great power, wide dominions. One who prepared for war—"Battle" so much that the world was amazed and confounded this "Beast" invincible. "Who is able to war with him!" All the inhabitants of the earth worshipped this beast, i.e., became more or less influenced in his favor, with the exception of the followers of the Lamb, the kind hearted, humble non-combatant. In this connection, St. John gives specific warning not to submit to be branded by the "mark of the beast, i.e. the character of the beast—not to give way to, or become a party or supporter of the British bloodshedding, praying, treacherous, war-mad, selfish policies of the beast-world power.

St. John closes this warning with these words—"Here (in this) is an opportunity for God's people to show faith and endurance." Let all who have ears give heed—if any one lead into bondage, he must himself go into bondage—if one is killing with the sword, he must himself be killed with the sword.—Rev. 12:17.

10. We refuse to give any voluntary aid to continue this war, because war never brings anything satisfactory or permanent.

Motto: "Whether it is right in the sight of God, to obey you (the authorities) rather than God, judge you, we must obey God rather than man." Acts 5:29.

Unanimously resolved and recommended for publication in Wetaskiwin Times and other papers who wish to copy.

Signed on behalf of the social democratic club of New Norway and district.

See the Doll's House at the School

The Doll's house made and entirely furnished by the pupils of the kindergarten and lower grades of the public schools, will be on view in the kindergarten room on the afternoon of Thursday and Friday, December 16 and 17. There will also be a sale of boxes and baskets of home made candy. The boxes and baskets are made and decorated by the pupils of the schools. The proceeds of the candy sale, in addition to the admission fee, will be given to the Patriotic Fund. This is the children's way of helping the good cause along and it is hoped that a good crowd will be in attendance.

The house is constructed from two apple boxes and cardboard, and the carpenter work was done by Grade V. The stairs were also the work of Grade V. boys, with the exception of the railings, etc., which were added by the kindergarten children and made from their beads and sticks. The papering of the lower rooms was done by Grade I. The matting made by the kindergarten children and the carpet on the two right hand rooms were made and designed by two girls in Grade 5, while the carpet on the left was made and designed by a pupil of King Edward school. The beds were made in the kindergarten also the book-cases, dressers, piano and stool, fireplace, and bathroom fittings, as well as the kitchen sink and drains. The cups and saucers were made also in the kindergarten. The mattresses were made by Grade VI, the hemstitched curtains, linen and dresser scarves, by Grade III, IV and V, the stencil border designs by Grades IV, V, and VI; the fringe designs by Grade VI; The electric light fixtures and made of screw hooks dome fastener and medicine capsules the tops of screw hooks and buttons. The pictures (which have been framed by the small children) and were taken from the catalogue of the B. I. Son Art Company. The knives and the front gate were made by Dana Nelson, Grade VI. An exhibit of the designs for carpets, rugs, curtains, and wall decorations made by all the grades will also be on view. The candles were made by dipping cotton threads in melted wax. The actual cash expenditure on the furnishing amounts to exactly 10 cents, which was spent for pattern charts. Thanks are due to Mr. Wallace for the glass, which he cut to size and donated. The large display of dolls has been lent by various pupils.

The idea from the commencement was to utilize old spare material or odds and ends in the construction of a fascinating plaything, which should be equal to a costly toy and cost nothing, and that the children may feel, that even they were, by the work of their own hands and brains helping to swell the Patriotic Fund, and so do their "bit".

SUPREME COURT CASES

Olaf Molin, of Calmar, appeared before Mr. Justice Hyndman in the Wetaskiwin sittings of the supreme court on Wednesday of last week, claiming from his son, Olaf, a sum of $1891 for work done and money spent in connection with a farm now the property of the defendant. After hearing the case of the plaintiff and before the witnesses for the defense were called, the action was dismissed. Watt & Watt for plaintiff; D. P. McLeod, Leduc, for the defendant.

In the case of Mark Pacula, this was an application by way of appeal from the district court to the supreme court on behalf of Mark Pacula for an order requiring the release of an execution placed on Pacula's land, subject to transfer of the property and an order was accordingly made releasing the property on the grounds that an execution is only binding on the lands of the debtor as long as he is in possession of it, even though the purchaser may not have registered his transfer. W. M. Chaires appeared for M. Pacula, the purchaser, and Watt & Watt, the execution creditor.
